

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has reduced the phone calls during dinner time from 4 every night to one night per week. I believe it is the responsibility of the legislature to protect family time. The home should be considered precious ground and family time should never be disturbed by anyone who has not been invited!!!